

UAE Partnerships for Global Development Building Towards the 2030 Agenda

Date and Time:

14 July 2023
11:00 – 12:30, EDT(US)

Venue:

Permanent Mission of the United Arab Emirates to the United Nations

Host Country:

United Arab Emirates

Overview:

The objective of this event is to introduce the activities and initiatives from some of the UAE's leading development organizations: the Mohammed bin Rashid Global Initiatives (MBRGI), the Abu Dhabi Fund for Development (ADFD) and the Government Experience Exchange Program (GEEP). Taking into account their experience and track record in the field of development, Member States participating at the event will have an opportunity not only to get a deeper insight into the working models of these organization, but also to explore areas and modalities for potential bilateral cooperation.

Mohammed bin Rashid Global Initiatives (MBRGI), is one the largest regional foundations with initiatives focused in humanitarian, social and development areas and devoted to supporting and empowering vulnerable and disadvantaged communities around the world.

The Abu Dhabi Fund for Development (ADFD) is the development arm of the UAE Government and, through its 5 decades experience, has helped developing countries with sustainable socio-economic growth; through financial assistance in the forms of concessionary loans, managing government grants and equities.

The UAE's Government Experience Exchange Program (GEEP) is an initiative that was launched to share the UAE's government administration model globally, and to offer training and other tools to government institutions and individuals in order to empower them in maximizing public policy delivery.
